Buying tip: You are best advised not to leave your uniform buying until the last minute. This avoids the queues and chance of any specific size running out of stock. You can buy your garments as early as July, many do as Ricara will always correctly size up your child, to ensure both perfect fit come September, along with all the required growing room. If, however, you are then one of the 1% that come late August, wish you had got a different size, then so long as you kept your receipt and return your garments in the condition purchased, there will be no problem in exchanging sizes. Remember, Ricara will price match and better any early bird offer on printed or embroidered school uniform.

No Need to pre-order garments. Stock is available directly from
